AUTHORIZE A NEW AGREEMENT WITH AARP FOUNDATION TO PROVIDE SCHOOL BASED TUTORING AND MENTORING SERVICES

builds reading skills for K-3 students who have been identified as academically vulnerable. Tutors will work with teachers to develop a specific intervention strategy for each student served. 1) Placement of up to three tutors per participating K-3 classroom and a team loader per school. 2) Up to 12 hours of tutor support for each participating classroom teacher per week focused on the recommendations of the National institute of Child Health and Development and Secretary of Education. 3) School-based site coordination will be provided by a trained futor fream Leader for at least 20 hours per week per school with coordination and supervision by AARP professional staff members. 4) On-going communication and coordination with school principals and designated school staff to		students, acting as an additional teacher, role model, guide and friend. Tutors are recruited, screened, builds reading skills for K-3 students who have been identified as academically vulnerable. Tutors will work with teachers to develop a specific intervention strategy for each student served. 1) Placement of up to three tutors per participating K-3 classroom and a team leader per school. 2) Up to 12 hours of tutor support for each participating classroom teacher per week focused on the recommendations of the National Institute of Child Health and Development and Secretary of Education. 3) School-based site coordination will be provided by a trained tutor Team Leader for at least 20 hours per week per school with coordination and supervision by AARP professional staff members. 4) On-going communication and coordination with school principals and designated school staff to
builds reading skills for K-3 students who have been identified as academically vulnerable. Tutors will work with teachers to develop a specific intervention strategy for each student served. 1) Placement of up to three tutors per participating K-3 classroom and a team leader per school. 2) Up to 12 hours of tutor support for each participating classroom teacher per week focused on the recommendations of the National Institute of Child Health and Development and Secretary of Education. 3) School-based site coordination will be provided by a trained tutor Team Leader for at least 20 hours per week per school with coordination and supervision by AARP professional staff members. 4) On-going communication and coordination with school principals and designated school staff to	ا ۔ :
builds reading skills for K-3 students who have been identified as academically vulnerable. Tutors will work with teachers to develop a specific intervention strategy for each student served. 1) Placement of up to three tutors per participating K-3 classroom and a team leader per school. 2) Up to 12 hours of tutor support for each participating classroom teacher per week focused on the recommendations of the National Institute of Child Health and Development and Secretary of Education. 3) School-based site coordination will be provided by a trained tutor Team Leader for at least 20 hours per week per school with coordination and supervision by AARP professional staff members. 4) On-going communication and coordination with school principals and designated school staff to
builds reading skills for K-3 students who have been identified as academically vulnerable. Tutors will work with teachers to develop a specific intervention strategy for each student served. 1) Placement of up to three tutors per participating K-3 classroom and a team leader per school. 2) Up to 12 hours of tutor support for each participating classroom teacher per week focused on the recommendations of the National Institute of Child Health and Development and Secretary of Education. 3) School-based site coordination will be provided by a trained tutor Team Leader for at least 20 hours per week per school with coordination and supervision by AARP professional staff members. 4) On-going communication and coordination with school principals and designated school staff to	8 11: = '
builds reading skills for K-3 students who have been identified as academically vulnerable. Tutors will work with teachers to develop a specific intervention strategy for each student served. 1) Placement of up to three tutors per participating K-3 classroom and a team leader per school. 2) Up to 12 hours of tutor support for each participating classroom teacher per week focused on the recommendations of the National Institute of Child Health and Development and Secretary of Education. 3) School-based site coordination will be provided by a trained tutor Team Leader for at least 20 hours per week per school with coordination and supervision by AARP professional staff members. 4) On-going communication and coordination with school principals and designated school staff to builds reading skills for K-3 students who have been identified as academically vulnerable. Tutors will work with teachers to develop a specific intervention strategy for each student served. 1) Placement of up to three tutors per participating K-3 classroom and a team leader per school. 2) Up to 12 hours of tutor support for each participating classroom teacher per week focused on the recommendations of the National Institute of Child Health and Development and Secretary of Education. 3) School-based site coordination will be provided by a trained tutor Team Leader for at least 20 hours per week per school with coordination and supervision by AARP professional staff members. 4) On-going communication and coordination with school principals and designated school staff to	-
builds reading skills for K-3 students who have been identified as academically vulnerable. Tutors will work with teachers to develop a specific intervention strategy for each student served. 1) Placement of up to three tutors per participating K-3 classroom and a team leader per school. 2) Up to 12 hours of tutor support for each participating classroom teacher per week focused on the recommendations of the National Institute of Child Health and Development and Secretary of Education. 3) School-based site coordination will be provided by a trained tutor Team Leader for at least 20 hours per week per school with coordination and supervision by AARP professional staff members. 4) On-going communication and coordination with school principals and designated school staff to	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
1) Placement of up to three tutors per participating K-3 classroom and a team leader per school. 2) Up to 12 hours of tutor support for each participating classroom teacher per week focused on the recommendations of the National Institute of Child Health and Development and Secretary of Education. 3) School-based site coordination will be provided by a trained tutor Team Leader for at least 20 hours per week per school with coordination and supervision by AARP professional staff members. 4) On-going communication and coordination with school principals and designated school staff to	N=
1) Placement of up to three tutors per participating K-3 classroom and a team leader per school. 2) Up to 12 hours of tutor support for each participating classroom teacher per week focused on the recommendations of the National Institute of Child Health and Development and Secretary of Education. 3) School-based site coordination will be provided by a trained tutor Team Leader for at least 20 hours per week per school with coordination and supervision by AARP professional staff members. 4) On-going communication and coordination with school principals and designated school staff to	;-
 2) Up to 12 hours of tutor support for each participating classroom teacher per week focused on the recommendations of the National Institute of Child Health and Development and Secretary of Education. 3) School-based site coordination will be provided by a trained tutor Team Leader for at least 20 hours per week per school with coordination and supervision by AARP professional staff members. 4) On-going communication and coordination with school principals and designated school staff to 	_ *1
 2) Up to 12 hours of tutor support for each participating classroom teacher per week focused on the recommendations of the National Institute of Child Health and Development and Secretary of Education. 3) School-based site coordination will be provided by a trained tutor Team Leader for at least 20 hours per week per school with coordination and supervision by AARP professional staff members. 4) On-going communication and coordination with school principals and designated school staff to
 2) Up to 12 hours of tutor support for each participating classroom teacher per week focused on the recommendations of the National Institute of Child Health and Development and Secretary of Education. 3) School-based site coordination will be provided by a trained tutor Team Leader for at least 20 hours per week per school with coordination and supervision by AARP professional staff members. 4) On-going communication and coordination with school principals and designated school staff to 	,
 2) Up to 12 hours of tutor support for each participating classroom teacher per week focused on the recommendations of the National Institute of Child Health and Development and Secretary of Education. 3) School-based site coordination will be provided by a trained tutor Team Leader for at least 20 hours per week per school with coordination and supervision by AARP professional staff members. 4) On-going communication and coordination with school principals and designated school staff to
		 2) Up to 12 hours of tutor support for each participating classroom teacher per week focused on the recommendations of the National Institute of Child Health and Development and Secretary of Education. 3) School-based site coordination will be provided by a trained tutor Team Leader for at least 20 hours per week per school with coordination and supervision by AARP professional staff members. 4) On-going communication and coordination with school principals and designated school staff to

Conflicts - The agreement shall not be legally binding on the Board if entered into in violation of the provisions of 105 ILCS 5/34-21.3 which restricts the employment of, or the letting of contracts to, former Board members during the one year period following expiration or other termination of their terms of office.

	ndebtodress The Deard's In	Ao ptolorodo	 	DE DESE POST on amon	ndad .
				Λ
f.
				_
-
	from time to time shall be inco		a a nort of the annual	^
1
1-4
1

	Edhina The Donardo Edhina Co	ala adaménd Mari OF O			Alina
~					